SYNOPSIS

A higher education practitioner, student affairs generalist, and well-regarded speaker and trainer, Amy Murphy brings dry, compliance-based topics to life, engaging diverse stakeholders to ensure they have the information needed to comply with relevant legal mandates and embrace best practices. Her unique blend of deep expertise on everything from Title IX investigations to behavioral intervention and threat assessment, and her enthusiasm for the work of higher education administration, makes for valuable and memorable training opportunities.

“Amy is a voice of calm in the storm of uncertainty related to the fluid issues of higher education compliance. Her passion for student growth, safety, and purpose is at the core of her message.”

— Randal Dement, Vice President for Student Affairs,
Lubbock Christian University
