

ANNA OPPENHEIM, Esq.

Attorney ♦ Investigator ♦ Trainer

SYNOPSIS

As a former civil rights attorney for a private law firm and an investigator for the City of Philadelphia, Anna Oppenheim brings a unique and diverse skill set to The NCHERM Group. Combined with her lifelong passion for gender equity issues, she has the experience and the sensitivity to handle the most complex cases. Oppenheim provides thorough investigatory and advisory services to reach a speedy and equitable resolution.

“Anna is an exceptional attorney and a brilliant investigator. Anna approached every task with an unmatched commitment to quality, accuracy, and diligence. She is able to balance the unbiased pursuit of facts with vigorous and unfaltering advocacy for clients. Always professional, measured, and composed, Anna was an invaluable member of our team.”

— Alexander DeSantis, Deputy Inspector General, City of Philadelphia, Office of the Inspector General

TOPICS OF EXPERTISE

- Civil rights law and best practices in the educational and workplace settings.
- All steps of investigations, from intake to report writing to resolution.
- Gender equity policy development, review, and implementation.
- Compliance audits.
- Employee training on discrimination, harassment, and other misconduct.
- Litigation experience with a focus on cases involving employment discrimination.
- Student conduct policies, procedures, and administration.

BIO

- Associate Attorney, The NCHERM Group, LLC. (www.ncher.org).
- Formerly served as an Attorney Investigator for the City of Philadelphia’s Office of the Inspector General, where she investigated claims of employee misconduct, discrimination, and compliance issues, and trained city employees.
- Worked as an associate attorney at a boutique plaintiff’s employment discrimination firm, with a special focus on advising clients on issues involving sexual harassment and employment contracts.
- Experience conducting mediation and other forms of alternate dispute resolution, as well as trainings on gender identity and equity, both in the United States and internationally.
- Received fellowship for work in India, where she led workshops on gender and diversity issues among marginalized groups, and organized and facilitated sessions of a non-governmental alternative dispute resolution system.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

To book a consultation, please call (610) 579-3725. To interview, please call (610) 993-0229 and select option 4 for Media.

The NCHERM Group is the umbrella for linked organizations that serve to advance holistic, proactive prevention and risk management on college, university, and school campuses. It is both a law and consulting practice, having served the education field for more than 15 years.